INSTRUCTORS

Cathy Felton has a B.S. in zoology and has ten years of course work with the former Landscape Institute of Harvard University, but a love of horticulture led her into the garden club world which now includes lecturing and teaching in New England and along the east coast. She is a Garden Club of America Horticulture Judge, American Daffodil Society Judge, and Master American Hosta Society Judge. An active member of the National Garden Clubs, Inc. (NGC), she has served on its national board as Horticulture Chairman and Vice Chairman of Gardening Study Schools. She is also an NGC Master Flower Show Judge and Horticulture Instructor for flower show schools, a member of the North Shore Garden Club in Massachusetts, and a member of North Shore Horticulture Society.

Kaye Vosburgh is an NGC Master Judge and Design Instructor. She has won numerous awards in the New England Flower Show. She is a member of 3 garden clubs including the one she started with her Master Gardener coworkers. She was a NY District III Director in the 90's. She is a Sogetsu Ikebana instructor of the highest rank, Riji and she teaches in Schenectady, New York, where she used to live, and in Massachusetts, her current home. She has demonstrated throughout the Central Atlantic Region, in Florida at CFAA and in Ecuador. Her favorite activity is sharing creative moments with other designers and students.
